

The following PEP survey data are from courses in various county juvenile correctional facilities in California that were taught during the Fall Semester 2023. At the completion of the course, in-custody students were given post-course surveys to complete. These results are from the following county juvenile facilities: San Diego, Solano, Monterey, Merced, Riverside, and San Mateo County.

Post-Course Comments

- I enjoyed it a lot. I hope we get to do this program more often.
- This is one of my favorite programs.
- It showed me the light at the end of the tunnel when pursuing a college education.
- I'm glad that a program like this is here to help people like me and others grow and do better with themselves. So, thank you.
- I've took this program many times and it keeps me motivated. Thank you.

Building Healthy Relationships Post-Course Comments

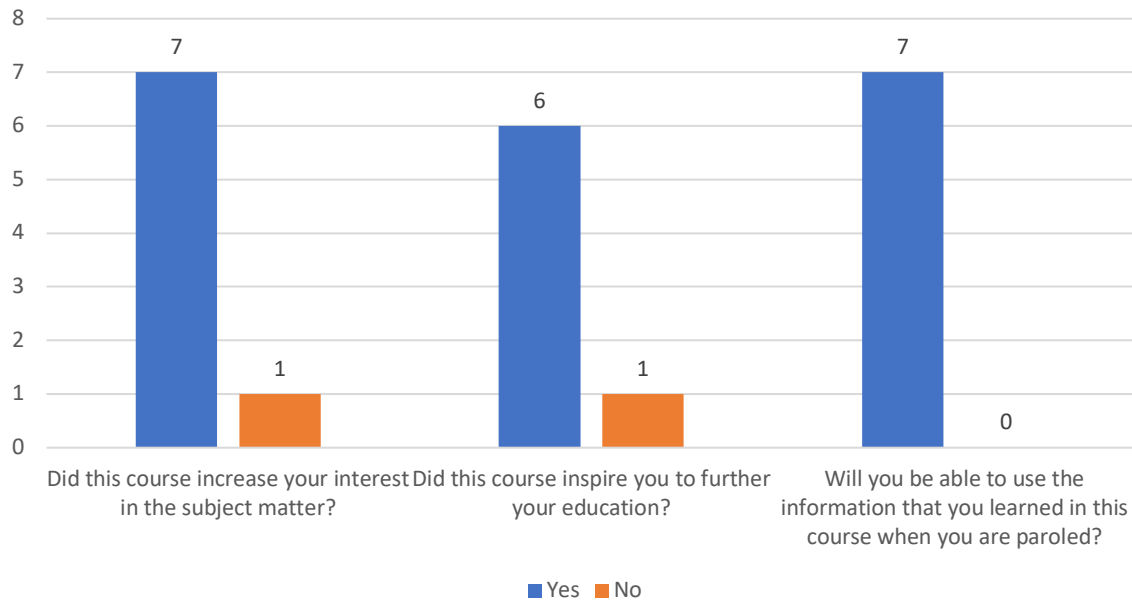

- I never thought I could go to college, now I know I can and will.
- These are the coolest people who come talk to us.
- I want to show my mom I can go to college and make her proud.
- These guys did it, so can I.
- Thanks for coming, it was fun.
- Can we talk about college more?

Building Healthy Relationships
Post-Course Comments

- Fantastic.
- I honestly think it was very helpful. I got to ask all my questions including college.
- I liked this class it helped me to learn a lot with people and how to stay positive with people and to forgive. 10/10 class.
- This group showed me how to better personal relationships and bettering myself as well as becoming a more personable person.
- Lo que me gusto de este programa que aprendi de lo que yo no sabia. Pues gracias por todo, lo aprecio. Gracias.

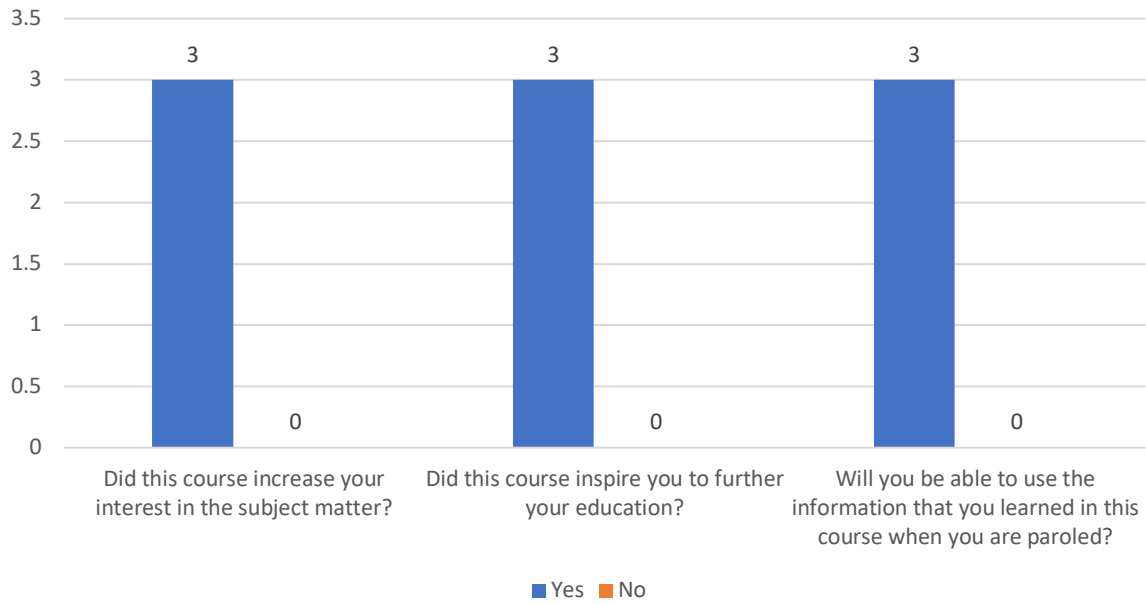

Monterey County Juvenile Hall: Music Appreciation

Post-Course Comments

- It caught my attention to understand music and the culture of music. I had a feel for music but to understand why I feel for music as far as genre, instruments, etc. and where certain aspects originated from.
- The course has been able to teach me more about music than I knew, I learned there are many different types of music.
- Thank you for coming out here to see us in person. Music will always remind me of this class.
- I really enjoyed this program because I felt significant. Lisa was always open to new ideas and ready to hear us out. Jen has such a happy spirit so I'm sure she made everyone feel comfortable and at home. I really hope this isn't the last time we get to see them.
- I learned some things about music that caught my attention and would consider using when I'm out. Thank you for coming.
